n.b.: dino's last name is easy to pronounce if you say each letter : "dell-or-let- ta"

Dino Dell'Orletta is a licensed professional audiologist.

He has been practicing audiology for approximately 22 years.

He holds a masters degree in audiology from the University of Western Ontario and is presently an international fellow with the American Academy of Audiology.

He is registered in Ontario with the College of Audiology and Speech Language Pathologists of Ontario.

During his internship as an audiologist he underwent placements at Toronto East General Hospital as well as Toronto Sick Children's Hospital.

From 1990 to 1994 Dino was the Director of Audiology at Laurentian Hospital in Sudbury.

Following this posting he relocated to the city of Barrie in 1994 and opened a private practice clinic.

THE HEARING CLINIC has offices in Barrie and Collingwood and offers diagnostic audiology as well as hearing aid prescription and dispensing services.

(Dino is available to talk to us about hearing loss trends in today's boomer population as well as the great advances that are being made in hearing aid technology.)
